

~ Enlightened Moments ~

The Anmore community is our extended family.
Let's get to know each other!

A few of your neighbours have decided to invite everyone for a get-together every other Sunday.

Why? Scientific studies have proven genuine happiness comes from meaningful social connections within family, friends and community. With a different theme each gathering, we hope to stimulate discussions through readings from divine teachers, spiritual leaders and renowned philosophers.

Children and Youth are encouraged to come!
